GAMES! GAMES! GAMES!

ESL games from Happy Everyday English allow teachers to easily add excitement to their lessons while students practice any content: grammar, vocabulary, listening, speaking and even phonics!

Best of all? No prep time is needed!

Simply put these games on your USB drive or computer and open them in the classroom. You don't need to install them and no internet is required to play.

The games work great to practice your daily content, review for an upcoming test or even fill that unexpected 10 minute void you have at the end of class.

And although you may simply ask a question to your students when playing, you can also use your own text questions, keywords, and pictures to enhance your experience if you like. You can even switch freely between using pictures, text questions, and keywords by pressing the prompt buttons (more on this on the next page).

With Happy Everyday English games, The teacher is always in control - games move at your pace and not the other way around.

A GREAT PLACE TO START

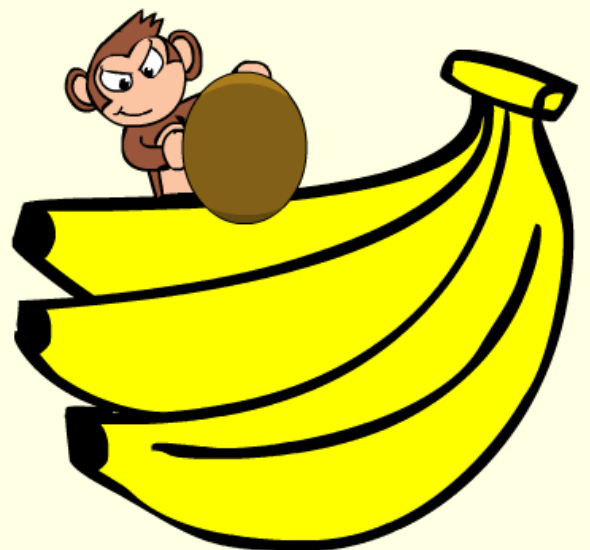

Start your Happy Everyday English Adventure by downloading the free game, Get the Bananas!

It's a fun team based game where 2-6 teams compete to do as the title says and get the bananas! Teams answer questions, stop the spinner, and then climb that many spaces.

They may even get the chance to drop a coconut on another team's monkey, sending it back down the tree a little bit.

You can download this game straight from the website.

GET THE BANANAS!

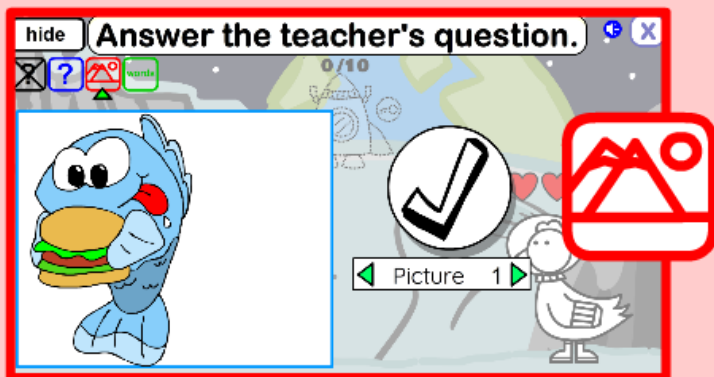

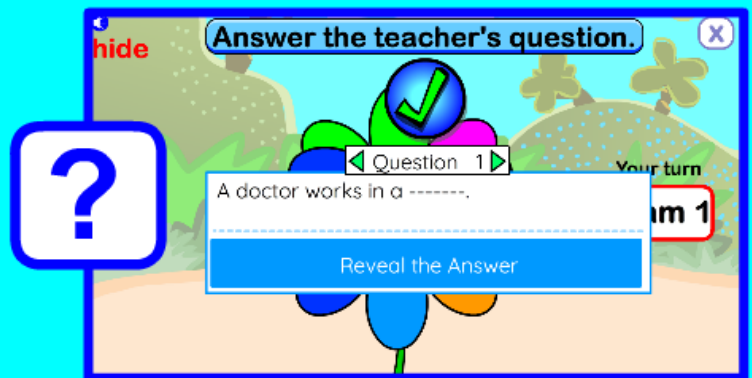

Four Question Prompts

These ESL games can be used to help your students practice content from any topic or subject. You can use your own questions and pictures when playing. You can change between four different question prompts anytime when playing.

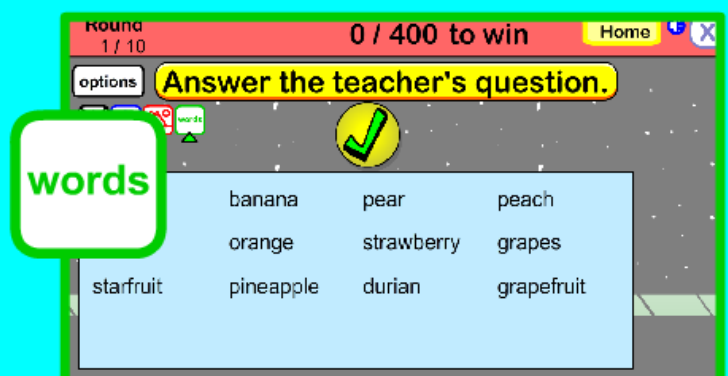

Prompt 1: No prompt: Simply ask a question to your students without the use of a prompt. You don't need to prepare anything ahead of time when playing with this prompt.

Prompt 2: Questions Display: You can prepare text questions ahead of time and use this prompt to display them when you play. The answer and question will be displayed. You can prepare more than 30 different questions ahead of time simply by editing a text file.

Prompt 3: Picture Prompt: Display pictures related to your content and ask questions based on them.

Prompt 4: Keywords: Display up to 16 different keywords related to your content at a time. Ask any question you'd like using the keywords displayed.

CANNONS AWAY IN CASTLE WRECKERS!

Fre in the hole!

Two teams battle it out to answer your questions in order to fire the cannon and destroy the opposing team's castle. Each castle is made up of eleven parts that must be wrecked in order to win.

In Castle Wreckers, the cannon has a mind of its own and aims wildly until stopped. Fire at the right time and you will hit the castle but fire at the wrong time and it's a miss! Be careful and fire away!

Cute and colorful style and flair.

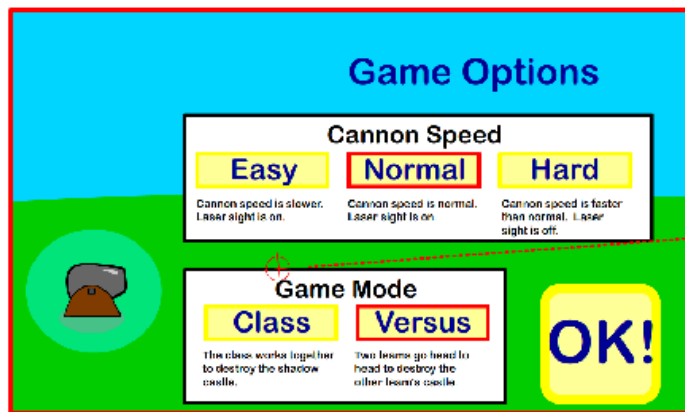

Options Options Options

Castle Wreckers includes three different difficulty settings that allow you to tailor the game to the needs of your class.

Easy: The cannon aims slowly and thus the game is easier.

Normal: The cannon aims at a normal speed and not too hard nor too difficult.

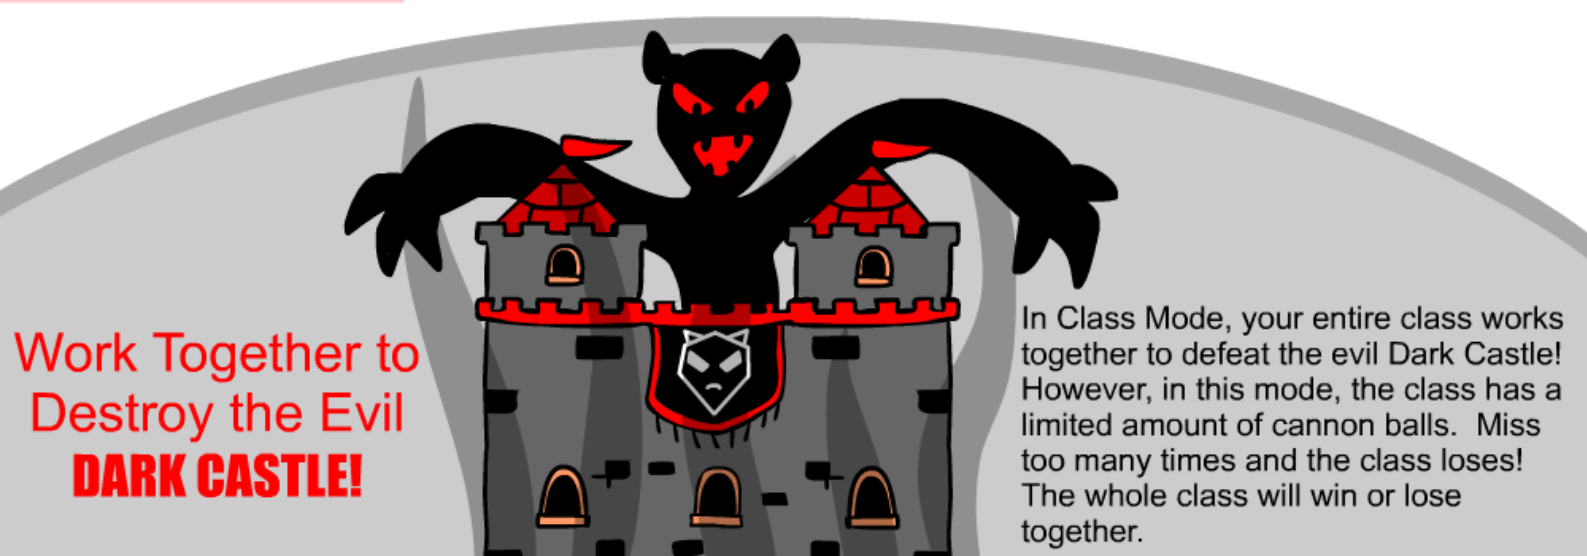

Hard: The cannon aims at breakneck speeds and firing can be chaotic! Recommended for advanced players only!

Select your options before starting.

Don't be naughty!

The teacher is in control in this game and can also destroy parts of the castle at any moment. This can be done as a way to deter naughty, unwanted behavior.

Work Together to Destroy the Evil DARK CASTLE!

In Class Mode, your entire class works together to defeat the evil Dark Castle! However, in this mode, the class has a limited amount of cannon balls. Miss too many times and the class loses! The whole class will win or lose together.

Become the Host!

Spin That Wheel is an exciting quiz game that pits 2-4 teams against one another in a three round game show. With each round the points and stakes increase.

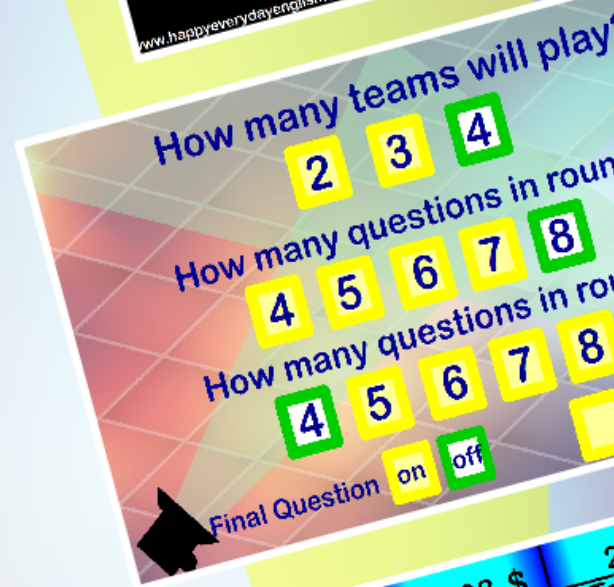

When preparing for the game, not only is it possible to select how many teams will play, but how long the game will last as well. Want a longer game? Have more questions and for a shorter game have less.

Round 3 consists of a single final question that everyone answers. Each team's final score is multiplied by how well they answer the last question. Points are multiplied based on not just having the correct answer, but language accuracy as well!

BOARD GAMES

Race to the end of the board in these board games.

GO! GO! GO!

Go Go Go is an interactive board race suitable for any topic and subject. Students compete to answer the teacher's questions. The fastest team can stop the dice and advance their token toward the goal. The first team to reach the finish line wins!

SNAKES AND LADDERS

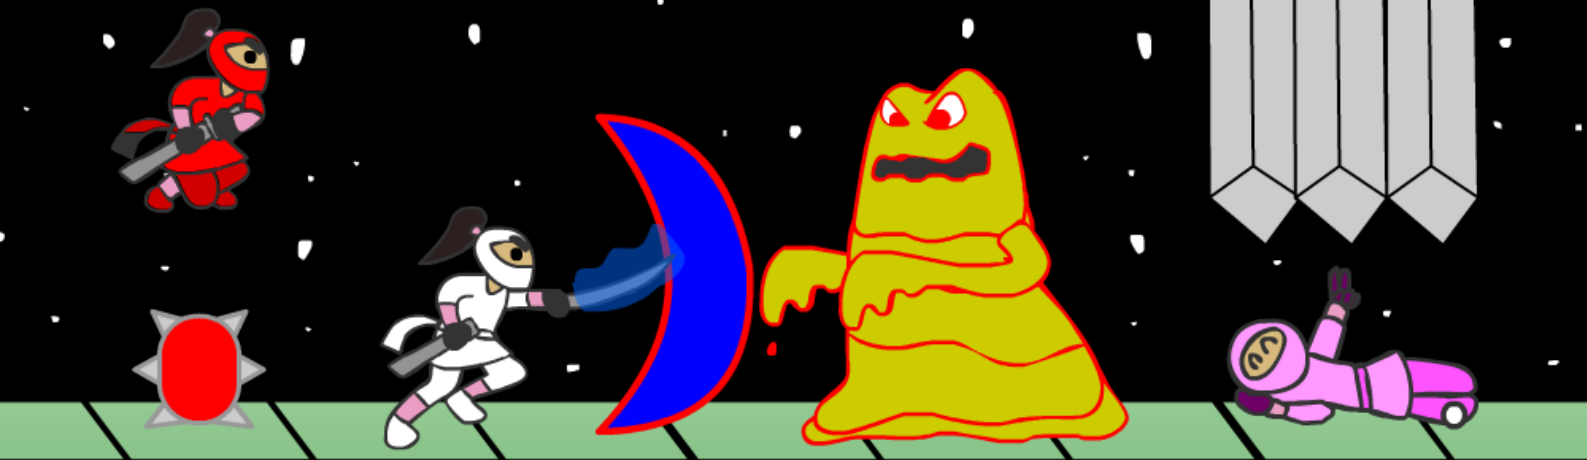

Snakes and Ladders is a classic board game known all over the world. Two to four teams compete to reach the end of the board. They must avoid snakes that want to eat them all the while trying to climb ladders that lead to higher spaces on the game board. The first team that reaches the end wins!

VOLCANO ESCAPE

Volcano Escape is an ESL board game that tasks your students with escaping a dangerous island before its volcano erupts! The problem...there's room on the escape boat for only one team. The first team to reach the win space escapes the island and wins!

Freely adjust the layout of the forward and backwards arrows any time as you play! Arrows can even be randomized and change each turn for a truly chaotic game!

JUMP, SLASH, AND SLIDE IN

Ninja Run

Action-Packed Ninja Fun!

Your whole class works together to help ninjas avoid dangerous obstacles in order to collect coins. If they collect enough coins before the game is over, they win. If they don't...they lose.

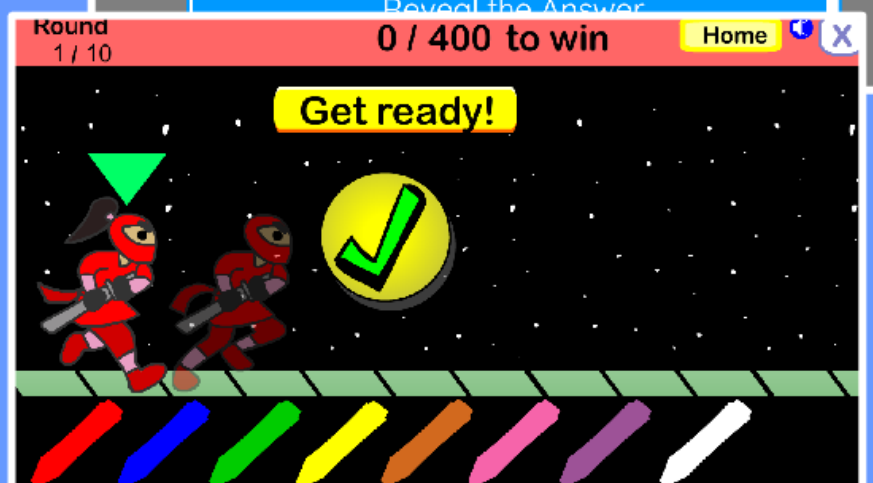

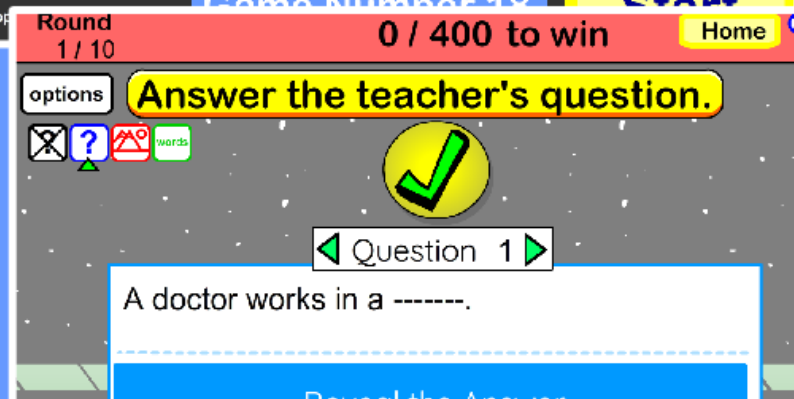

Game Difficulty Up to You

Numerous game options allow you to fully customize the game - from how fast the characters run to how many rounds are played as well as how many coins are required to win. Even disable game actions to make it easier for your would be ninjas.

Play Together

2-3 students can play at the same time with the Multiple Active Players mode.

One students jumps, another slides, and a third slashes!

PEW PEW CHICKEN FIGHT

SOS! CAPTAIN CHICKEN IS STRANDED ON A HOSTILE MOON AND NEEDS YOUR HELP!

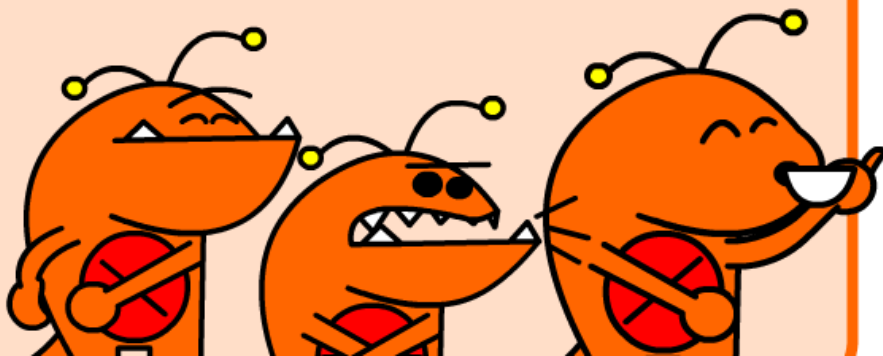

To set the scene, the game includes a story introduction.

The Story So Far

On his way home, Captain Chicken crash landed on a moon filled with hungry aliens. His space ship broke apart when it crashed and the only way to escape is by collecting the missing pieces. The problem is those pesky aliens have stolen the parts. Help the good Captain defeat the evil aliens and put his ship back together before he becomes dinner!

Sneaky, Sneaky, Sneaky

The aliens are sneaky creatures and have one weak spot - their tummy! The problem is these aliens like to hide their weak spot. Students must watch the aliens carefully and help Captain Chicken fire his arm laser cannon when the weak spot is revealed.

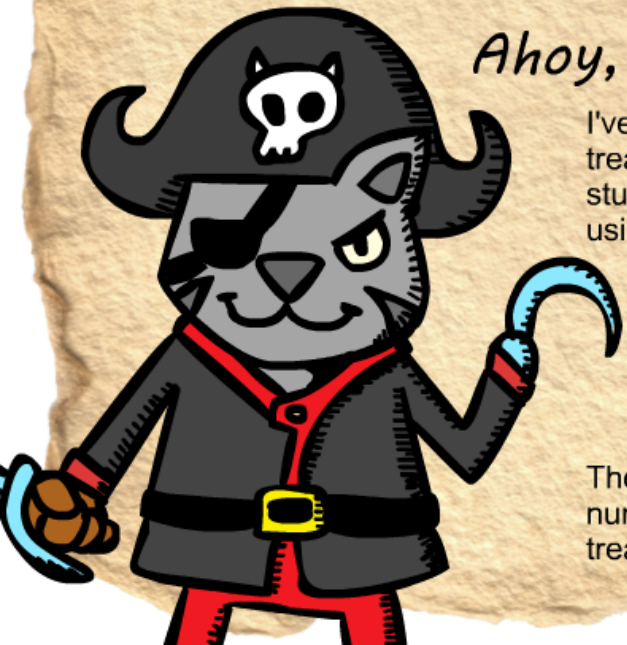

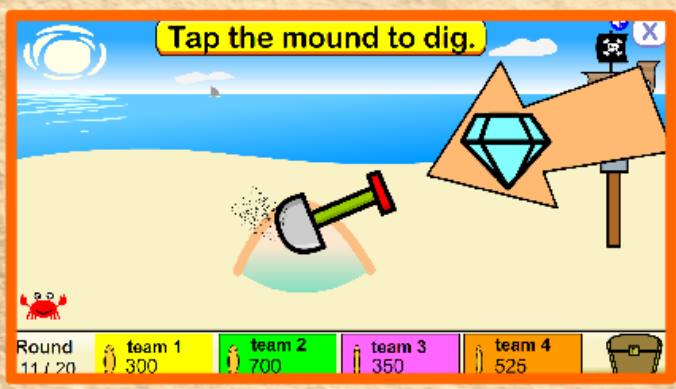

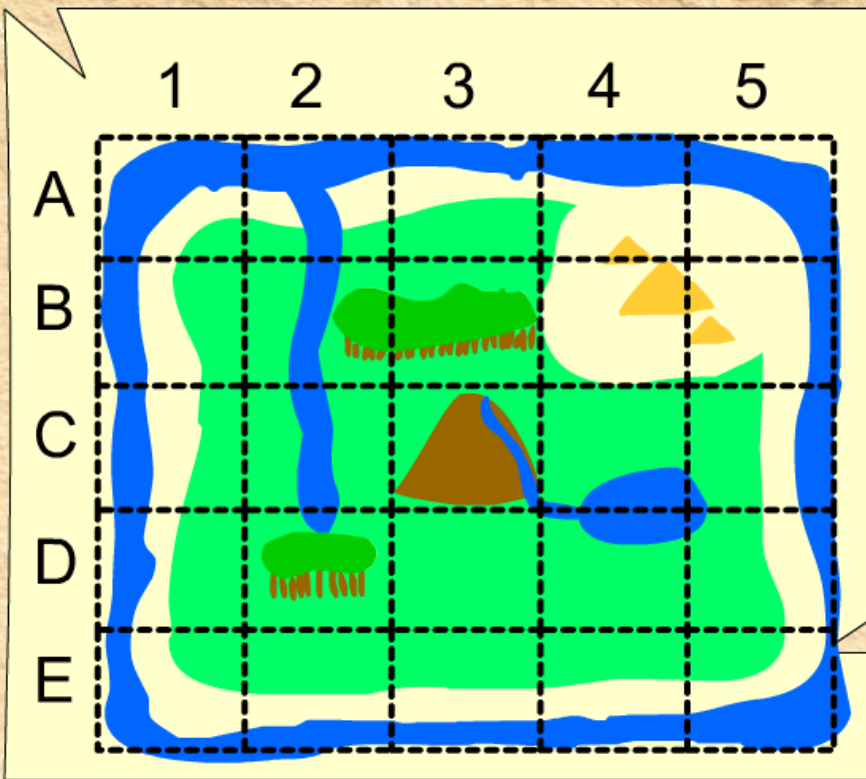

Collect all 10 ship parts to escape!

Seek treasure and riches in Pirate Treasure Hunt

Ahoy, treasure hunter!

I've found a treasure map with all kinds of wonderful treasure and need your students' help to find it all! Your students will be divided into teams to search the island using my treasure map.

They'll dig for treasure, open treasure chests, find magical fairies and even discover the magic treasure vacuum. The team that finds the most treasure at the end of the hunt, wins!

The hunt can get pretty crazy, too. Teachers can use numerous game options to adjust exactly how crazy the treasure hunt can be.

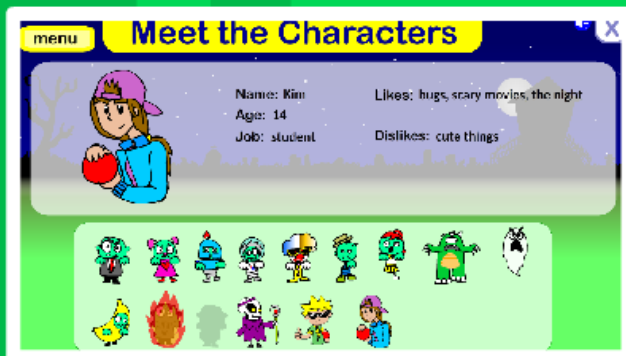

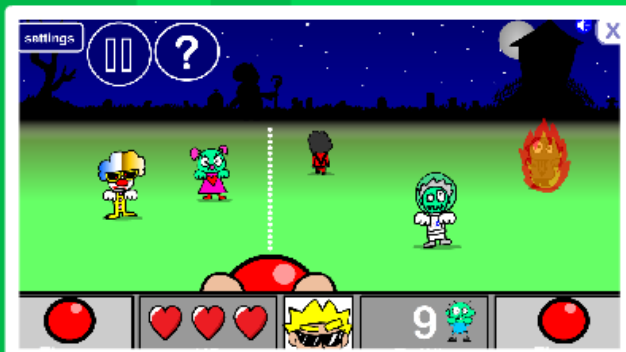

The zombies are coming!
They don't stop even when you ask your students questions. They need to think fast, answer fast, and throw the magic dodge ball to defeat the zombies.

Yeah! They need to defeat 15 of those gross zombies to win. (Or 20 or 10 or 100! The choice is up to you).

If they can do that, they scare off the evil Necrobob and win!

In Fighters' King, characters from other Happy Everyday English games collide in a battle to determine who is the titular Fighters' King. Two teams choose their character and go head to head in an exciting battle.

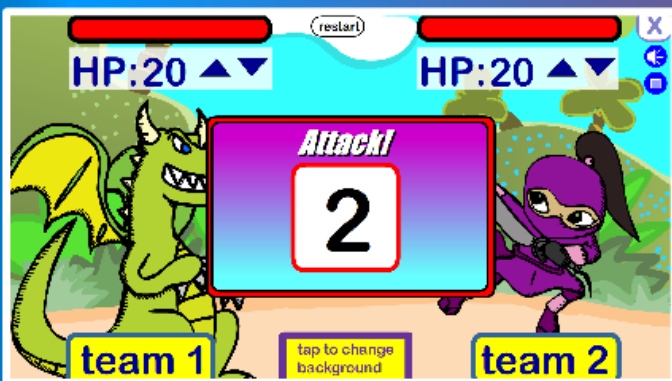

Fighters' King is an exciting and intense interactive game suitable for subject or topic! Teams choose one of seven fun characters to represent them in the game. Once chosen, teams compete to be the first to answer your questions. Doing so will allow them to stop the dice and deal damage to the opposing team's hit points. The first team to reduce the other team's HP to zero, wins!

Choose your fighter from a colorful cast of seven characters.

Teams compete to be the first to answer your questions.

Then roll the dice and deal the shown damage to the opposing team.

Be the first to reduce the other team's life points to zero to win!

GET READY TO BECOME THE Fighters' King

Roly Poly Bowly

Hey there, you awesome teacher, you! I'm Wally the Roly Poly. Think your students can help me collect fruit? The only thing I enjoy more than bouncing is eating delicious fruit.

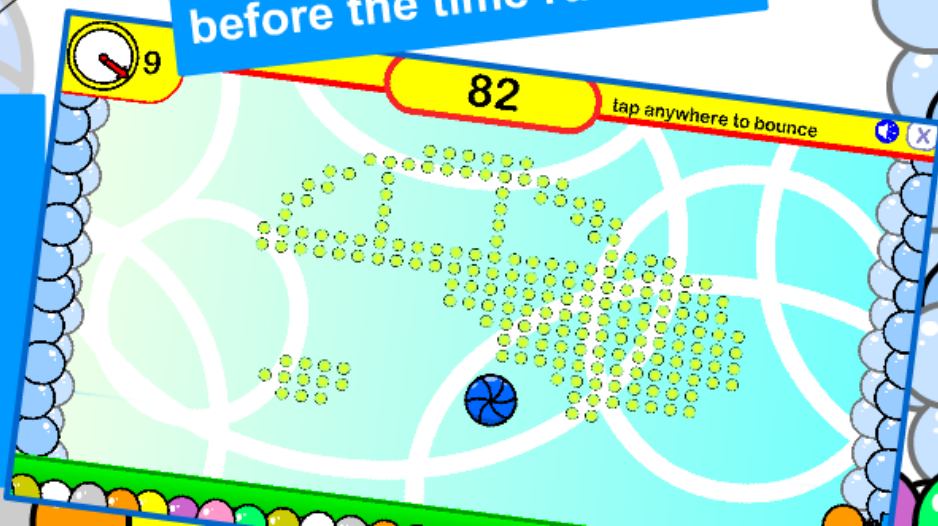

Stop the wheel to randomly select the stage.

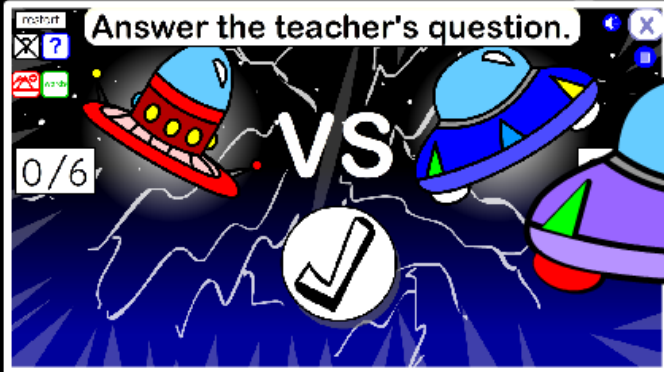

Collect lots of fruit before the time runs out!

Students work together or compete to collect a certain amount of fruit before the last round. If they can do that, they win! Good luck!

Get ready for a destructive game of carnage, mayhem, and fun!

Your students compete to answer your questions in order to earn the privilege of firing their lasers!

Aim carefully! Our spaceships move back and forth quickly so your students need to stop them at just the right moment to hit a building and destroy it.

THEY DON'T COME IN PEACE!

The first team to destroy their city or to destroy a certain number of buildings designated by you, wins!

UFO CARNAGE!

Are you ready for...

GRAVE DANGER!

THEY are waiting for you...

Everything goes bump in the night in Grave Danger. In this game, students scour the graves looking for candy but they might find monsters instead! Teams can compete to find the most candy (and points) before you decide that the game is over. This game can be played endlessly and is completely randomized.

More than 10 animated odd occurrences can occur when playing. From the screen darkening with a ghostly message to bugs scurrying across the graveyard to the team points themselves glitching out, these odd occurrences are sure to get a reaction out of your students! (The frights never get out of hand and are only triggered by the teacher).

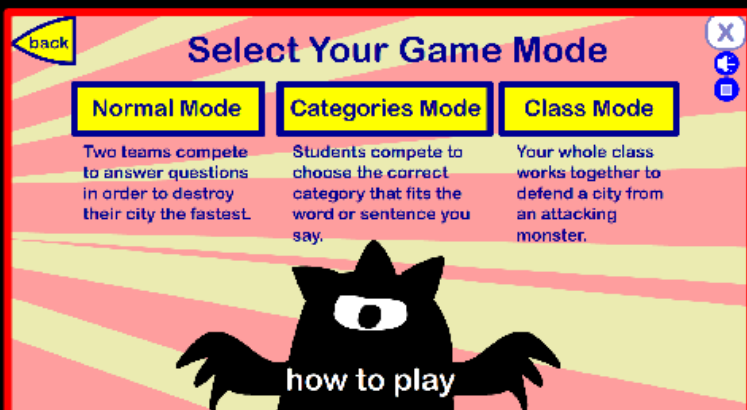

Not only great for Halloween parties or classes - kids love monsters all year round!

Might not be suitable for all ages! Teacher discretion is advised.

DEFEND YOUR CITY IN MONSTER ATTACK!!!

BECOME THE HERO OR THE DESTROYER!

Monster Attack is a game that sees your students work together to defend their city from a giant monster OR help the monster destroy the city. This classroom game features both a class mode and a versus mode for two teams.

HEAD TO HEAD CHAOS

In Normal and Categories modes, students compete to destroy their city the fastest. The team that answers your questions first help their giant monster advance. The first to reach their city destroys it and wins!

A MONSTER ON THE MOVE

In Class Mode, the whole class works together to fend off an approaching monster. The monster is always advancing is only stopped when students answer a question correctly. If they can answer a certain amount of questions before the monster reaches the city, they power up their laser cannon and blast the monster off into space.
